

Ian Mumma

Smith Hall 333, 18 Amstel Ave., Newark, DE 19716
Phone: 918-863-9351 | Email: ianmumma@udel.edu

EDUCATION

2nd Year Political Science Ph.D. Student University of Delaware	Present
Fields: American Politics, Political Methodology
Master's in Political Science University of Delaware	May 2023
Bachelor of Science, Psychology Oklahoma State University, Stillwater, OK	May 2021
<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Political Science Minor● Political Science GPA: 4.0

SELECTED WORKS IN PROGRESS

Mumma, Ian. “Motivated Deviance: Hyperpartisanship Leads to Support for Partisan Aggression & Willingness to Engage in Partisan Aggression.” In preparation

PRESENTATIONS AND CONFERENCES

Presenter, Panel Talk. “Motivated Deviance: Hyperpartisanship Leads to Support for Partisan Aggression & Willingness to Engage in Partisan Aggression.” Midwest Political Science Association Conference. Apr. 13-16, 2023. Chicago, IL.

Presenter, Lightning Talk. “My Party and I: An Intragroup Perspective on Partisan Violence Support, Violent Engagement, and Partisan Self-Sacrifice.” Midwest Political Science Association Conference. Apr. 7-10, 2022. Chicago, IL.

Presenter, Poster Presentation. “The role of mating strategies in viewing pathogenic cues: An eye-tracking study.” Society for Personality and Social Psychology Conference. Feb. 9-13, 2021. Virtual.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Introduction to Statistical Analysis for Political Science February 2022 – December 2022
University of Delaware

- Helped with the management of the undergraduate course (about 80 students overall)
 - Planned and held two lab sessions once per week (about 20 students per section)
 - Held weekly office hours in person (3 hours weekly)
 - Managed communications with students for help with assignments and any other issue
 - Graded weekly discussions, statistics assignments, and reading notes

Introduction to American Politics (POSC150) (x2) August 2021 - May 2022
University of Delaware

- Helped with the management of the undergraduate course (about 90 students overall)
 - Planned and held two discussion sections once per week (about 20 students per section)
 - Held weekly office hours (1 hour weekly)

- Managed communications with students for missed exams or lecture
- Graded Exams (x4) with 10 multiple-choice and 4 prompt questions
- Managed InQuizative (online quiz software) for sections (about 20 students per section)

METHODOLOGICAL SKILLS

Experienced in Stata / R & Tidyverse/ SPSS

Graduate Courses

Quantitative Text Analysis February 2023 - May 2023

University of Delaware

Survey Research Methods February 2023 - May 2023

University of Delaware

ICPSR Summer Program June 2022 - July 2022

- Race, Ethnicity, and Quantitative Methodology I
- Measurement, Scaling, and Dimensional Analysis
- Introduction to the R Statistical Computing Environment
- Mathematics for Social Scientists, II
- Regression Analysis II: Linear Models

University of Michigan

Statistical Analysis for Political Science I & II September 2021 – December 2021

University of Delaware

Quantitative Methods in Political Science January 2021 – May 2021

Oklahoma State University

RESEARCH ASSISTANT EXPERIENCE

Voter Mobilization and Antagonism February 2023 - Present

Polarizing Cues Project with Kassra Oskooii, University of Delaware

- Learning R and Tidyverse, will be working on the data analysis using Tidyverse, helping to design an experiment, and presenting the work at a workshop group at UD

Indirect Formability and Gender August 2020 – May 2021

Social & Evolutionary Psychology Lab, Oklahoma State University

- Discussing relevant literature with the research group, coming up with research ideas and survey questions, and presenting literature to the lab

Mating Preferences and Disgust Sensitivity March 2020 – May 2021

Psychobiology Lab, Oklahoma State University

Presented at the SPSP Evolutionary Psychology Preconference

- Responsible for running participants in the lab
- Documenting and administering the computer task

Mating Preferences and Ovulation February 2020 – May 2021

Psychobiology Lab, Oklahoma State University

- Responsible for running participants in lab
- Documenting the task and administering a spit test
- Administering the computer task

Attention, Resiliency, & Adversity August 2019 – May 2020

Psychobiology Lab, Oklahoma State University

- Responsible for running participants in the lab

- Documenting and timestamping procedures
- Using an HRV biopic monitor, TENS shock unit, and administering various computer tasks
- Administering mock interviews with participants and recording data
- Entering physiological and psychological data through Excel

HONORS & AWARDS

University of Delaware Summer Doctoral Fellowship	April 2022
Summer Research Funding
ICPSR Scholarship for Political Science Research	May 2022
ICPSR Summer Program
Cherokee Nation Graduate Scholarship	August 2021
Cherokee Nation College Resource Center
Cherokee Nation Undergraduate Scholarship	January 2018
Cherokee Nation College Resource Center

PROFESSIONAL HISTORY

Crisis Recovery Coach	June 2020 – August 2020
CREOKS Behavioral Health Clinic, Sapulpa, OK

- De-escalate situations when a guest has an outburst and take care of other guests during a crisis situation
- Conduct a group session with the guests to discuss personal issues and their behavioral plans to ensure their recovery and well-being
- Manage and oversee interactions between guests to ensure the personal and psychological safety of all guests
- Help guests create an environment of recovery at the crisis care center